

First Lutheran Church Schedules Recital for Organist and Singer

The Ministry of Music Department of First Lutheran Church, Torrance, will present their organist, Wayne Allen in recital on July 1, 4 p.m. in the sanctuary of the church at 1725 Flower. He will be assisted by baritone Gerald Pierson, who is completing his year of internship at this church.

Allen, a graduate of Pepperdine College and now a member of the faculty of the Music Department of Centinella Valley Union High School, will play music from the time of Bach to the present day. One of his numbers, "Thy Spirit Be Joyful" by Bach will be accompanied by two trumpets.

Gerald Pierson is a graduate of Augusta College and was a member of their famous college choir and did solo work with that group.

Mr. Pierson is currently completing his year of internship at First Lutheran as part of his curriculum at Wartburg Seminary, Dubuque, Iowa where he is studying for the ministry. He will be heard in solos written by Bach, Handel, Mendelssohn, Franck and of contemporary composers.

One composition for organ and two compositions for solo voice written by Wallace R. Herrewig, minister of music of First Lutheran Church will be among the works presented. The Rev. William J. Roleder is pastor of the church. The public is cordially invited.

TALL TROPHIES — High honors were accorded Miss Barbara Connell, when Miss Henrietta Martin, left, presented the former college commissioner of activities the Forrest G. Murdock Leadership Award at campus festivities. Miss Connell combined academic achievement with initiative to win the coveted award at El Camino College.

Lutheran Church Slates Vacation Bible Classes

Ascension Lutheran Church, 17910 Prairie Ave., Torrance, began its annual two week Vacation Bible School Monday, June 18. The school will continue through June 29.

Rev. Lloyd C. Warneke, pastor, stated that a unique feature this year will be sessions in handicraft work in tile mosaics, plaster of paris plaques and finger painting on pelfon for the primary through high school classes.

"Let's learn to know God" is the theme of the two week course. E. F. Wiechmann, superintendent, and Mrs. Stanley King, assistant superintendent, are directing activities in Bible stories, music, and handicraft.

Staff members are: For the nursery classes, Mrs. Robert Deshler and Mrs. Howard Thurn; kindergarten, Mrs. Richard Fredrickson, Mrs. T. G. Elkorn, Mrs. Ira Hon, Mrs. Ralph Houser, Mrs. Richard Myers and Misses Rosemarie Witt, Kathy Oetter and Virginia Ulkus.

Teaching in the primary department are: Mrs. Robert Gerns, Mrs. Harold Edwards, Mrs. Thomas Comber and Miss Helen Hon. Mrs. Thomas Segar and Miss Marie Pritchard are also in the primary department.

Junior teachers are Mrs. Robert Chavez, Mrs. R. B. Savage, Mrs. Marvelyn Warner, Mrs. Ted Ulkus and Mrs. Walter Schneider. Mrs. L. C. Warneke and Mrs. Fred Chaffey will teach junior high.

Baptist Young People Go to Camp

The Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church of Lomita sent 32 young people and sponsors to summer camp that began last Monday. The camp is being conducted this week at Mt. Palomar near Oceanside. The camp includes young people from 14 different churches. Ed Isbell, minister of education for the Lomita church, is camp director.

The church has scheduled a youth-led revival for July 8-15. Three young people will be directing this activity of special interest to the youth of the community. Rev. A. L. McDaniels, Jr. of Fresno, will be the preacher. Bob Hunn of Concord will direct the singing, and Joyce Beaird will serve as pianist during the one week event.

Seventh Day Adventists Join Huge Camp Meeting

Services of Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave., will be transferred for the next two Saturdays to the 59th Annual Campmeeting of Southern Adventists at 4100 Imperial Highway, Lynwood. Pastor Glenn L. Goffar announced today.

Local congregational members will worship with some 15,000 to 20,000 Adventists and visitors at the giant religious convocation which opens Friday June 22 and continues through Saturday, June 30.

Pastor Goffar said local

Adventists will hear George E. Vandeman, Washington, D.C. general field secretary of the church's world organization speak at the 11 a.m. worship service Saturday, June 23.

"We expect practically all our members to worship with the thousands of others at this convocation," Pastor Goffar said in commenting on the special program for the local church. "In years past we have found that members of the Torrance Adventist Church prefer to have our local services merged with the Campmeeting services to achieve a greater spirit of Christian unity in the church."

Pastor Goffar said the annual Campmeeting is a near-century-old tradition in the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Each year more than 60 large Campmeetings are held by Seventh-day Adventist church conferences throughout North America.

The convocation opens at 7:30 p.m., Friday, June 22, with an address by William A. Fagal, New York City, speaker and director of the international religious tele-cast, "Faith For Today."

PTA News

A profusion of gaily colored Hawaiian leis and Hibiscus carried out the theme of "Aloha" at a recent luncheon held in the auditorium of the 223rd Street School, honoring the entire school staff and marking the end of a very successful school year.

Fifty-two members of the school staff were served at the buffet style luncheon and at this time best wishes with regrets were extended to those members of the school staff leaving to serve in different areas. A gift, Record Book of Memoirs for the School Year, was presented to Marie N. Lorenz, principal by retiring president, Mrs. Ralph Robertson.

Leis, table decorations and flower arrangements were done by Mrs. Eddie Grijalva, first vice-president. Members serving on the food committee were: Mrs. Ralph Robertson, president; Mrs. Wayne Smith, safety chairman; Mrs. Albert Owen, room mother chairman; Mrs. Earl Cawthon, international relations; Mrs. Dwayne Witly, secretary; Mrs. John Bankard, parliamentarian. Guest of honor was Mrs. Hal Burgener, president-elect.

HARBOR CITY
Harbor City PTA board meeting was held this week at the home of Mrs. Robert Rohl. Mrs. Rohl honored her board members with a luncheon and they in turn presented her with chaise lounges for her years work.

Following chairmen were ratified: Mmes. Robert Finlay, upper room representative; George Lee, juvenile protection; William Billier, co-ways and means; James Titus, magazine; Beverly Stark, parent education; Jack Russell, newsette; Wade Chandler, youth services.

A check was presented to Mrs. Avis Creech, principal, for the purchase of school library books.

Spring flowers, bird nests and birds was the theme for the gaily decorated tables at the teachers luncheon held on the last day of school. Board members honored teachers William Cleary, Phyllis Chace, Mildred Dudley, Manuela Matute and nurse, Joan Calder with farewell gifts.

Francis Rush announced the faculty chairman for next year is Mary Griff.

Three playground directors will supervise at Harbor City School Monday through Saturday, 12:30 to 5:30, June 18 to Aug. 24. Crafts, beach trips, sno-cone feeds, baseball teams, track teams, playacting, dancing, roller skating and films are on the agenda. So come on kids and participate.
